

FUNERAL & BURIAL ARRANGEMENTS

PROCEDURE

All Praise is for Allah and Peace and Blessings be on the Messenger of Allah

As part of our commitment to strengthen ECMANCR and its members, we compiled the following information from various reliable sources to provide basic information regarding the processes to be followed at the time of death of a family member. ECMANCR funeral and cemetery committee believe that sharing this information to our members is beneficial to help them know ahead of time and be prepared for the inevitable.

Our members brother Mohammed Woyessa and brother Ahmed Rashid have volunteered to organize the community and help the family at the time of death of our members. They can be reached at:

Brother Mohammed Woyessa; (613)400-6758

Brother Ahmed Rashid; (613)700-5303

Note:

Members of ECMANCR must have a letter to obtain cemetery plots reserved for our community. This letter can be obtained from the Chairperson of ECMANCR Board of Directors. Our current Chairman of ECMANCR Board of Director is

Brother Bahir Kamal; (613) 883-0910

When a death occurs at home, follow these procedures:

In the case of an unexpected death call 911

And wait for the authorities, call your local mosque

No further action needs to be taken.

In case of an expected death

- Call the family doctor or home care nurse. If they are unavailable
- call 911. After that call your local mosque to make an
- arrangement for the funeral
- a. We recommend closing the eyes of the deceased
- immediately using a warm cloth
- b. We recommend Binding the lower jaw to the head by
- wrapping a scarf around the face and tying it up to
- ensure that the jaw does not hang.
- c. There can be an attempt to straighten the limbs,
- however, be sure not to use a forceful manner.
- d. The deceased should be covered entirely with a clean
- Sheet.

Once you contact one of the Mosque funeral volunteers or the Mosque office staff, they will discuss the process with you in detail and help you fill out the paperwork and make the necessary arrangements.

Trust the volunteers to help you so you can focus on comforting the family and attending to your visitors. Although the Mosque funeral volunteers will help you every step of the way, we encourage family members to familiarize themselves with the process.

The following procedures are applicable if you don't require Mosque funeral services.

1. If death occurs at home:

Call your family doctor (or the last doctor the patient had seen) for a home visit (for the due process) and issuance of a Medical Certificate of Death (Form 16) or call 911 and the body will be transported by an ambulance to the Hospital where after the due a Medical Certificate of Death (Form 16) will be issued and the body will remain in the Morgue until the other formalities are completed.

2. If death occurs in the Hospital:

Hospital will complete the due process and issue a Medical Certificate of Death (Form 16) and the body will remain in the Morgue until the other formalities are completed.

3. Obtain a Statement of Death (Form 15) from the Mosque or from City hall.

4. Contact Cemetery and arrange for the burial and opening and closing of the grave: An appointment will be set to meet to sign the required documents and make payment.

5. The Cemetery will require the burial permit issued by the City of Ottawa before the grave can be opened.

Bring both forms (Form 15, Statement of Death & Form 16, Medical Certificate of Death) to obtain a Death Registration, also called a Burial Permit from Ottawa City Hall.

(24 hour service is provided at 10 Laurier Avenue West, Ottawa, Ontario, K1P 1J1, telephone # 580-2400 – After office hours, one has to inform the security guard (main door) that you are here for a burial-permit and you will be escorted to a City official)

OR one of the satellite offices,

3 of which are listed below, between 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m., Monday to Friday (after hours, weekends and holidays go to the City Hall address above).

a) Orléans Client Service Centre, 255 Centrum Blvd., Suite 11,

Orléans

b) Ben Franklin Place Client Service Centre, 101 Centerpoint Dr.,

Nepean

c) Kanata Client Service Centre, 580 Terry Fox Dr., Kanata.

The City will immediately issue a burial-permit upon submission of the fee and both forms (Form 15 & 16).

The fee to register a death in the City of Ottawa is $64.

Please make a few copies of these important documents.

Only upon issuance of a burial permit by the City, the hospital will release the body from the Hospital.

PLEASE NOTE: The cemetery will only open the grave upon issuance of a burial-permit by the City (exception being a fetus, in this case a burial permit may not be issued).

The family will be required to bring two pieces of ID, Health Card and SIN number for the deceased, and fill out required forms.
